

---

Ernest Hawkins was born in Terrible
Vale, Armidale, NSW. Ernest joined the

---

d

Staff Sergeant Richard Jeffrey was born in the July of 1870 in Goulburn and enlisted to be in the Army on the 5th of October 1914. Sergeant Jeffrey embarked on the 28th of November 1914 and fought in WWI. After fighting in World War One for four years he returned to Australia on the 6th of May 1919. Sergeant Jeffrey died on the 5th of October 1958.

By Evelyn Crowley (Year 6)

Arthur Douglas Johnson was born in Tasmania on the 5th of August 1919. Arthur served in the Royal Australian navy. He enlisted in the Navy in 1939 when he was twenty years old. Arthur served on the ship HMAS Penguin. He fought in World War Two. Arthur was discharged from the navy on the 17th Alfred Roy Gorrie, member of the 1st Light Horse Regiment, B Squadron, travelled on the Star of Victoria with his regiment 552. He participated in the Battle of Magdabah among many others. Magdhaba, a village located in the northern Sinai desert, was the scene of an action fought on 23 December 1916 when Turkish forces blocking the route to Palestine were attacked by Major General Harry Chauvel's ANZAC Mounted Division, which had the Imperial Camel Corps attached. He enlisted on the 5th September 1914, left Sydney Harbour on the 20th October 1914. He was born in Brisbane, Queensland, raised in Lindfield, NSW. He was only 19 when he enlisted, he died at 24 years of age.

By Oliver Bragg (Year 9)

